FAQ'S

Can I get financial assistance?

- Yes, financial aid is available but competitive, especially for the first semester. With strong academic records and test scores, Edwise Counsellors can help secure Scholarships & aid.

What is the acceptance rate for top universities?

- The acceptance rate for the top 10 universities is 1-4%. To improve your chances, apply to other strong programmes, as rankings can vary by region and subject.

Can I change my major after enrolling?

- Yes. One of the key advantages of the U.S. education system is academic flexibility. Students can change majors or add minors, subject to university policies and academic performance.

Can I get admission to the USA with 15 years of education?

- Most of the U.S. universities require 16 years of education. Completing an M.Com, M.A., M.Sc., or one year of a Master's degree is often needed. Some top universities accept applicants with 15 years of education if studied at a well-ranked University in India.

What is the transfer student concept?

- Transfer students can complete 1-2 years of a Bachelor's or Diploma program in India and then apply to transfer to a U.S. university. Credit transfer depends on coursework and grades, but exact credit transfers are rare.
